

Visiting Professors

2008 and 2009 were also the years where Dr. Scott Rains have made possible the participation of more visiting world- class professors from North America and Asia. ASCM students were blessed to experience having week-long modular classes conducted by seasoned teachers and trainers for all levels of Academic training.

Dr. Steve Land

Dr. Steve Land, President of COG Theological Seminary highlighted the Doctor of Ministry Program with very detailed and clear understanding of “Pentecostal Spirituality.” His inspiring testimonies about people unknown to many but precious in the eyes of the Lord have stirred up doctorate students to be bolder in their testimonies and “stories” and their perception of true Pentecostal spirituality. According to the current doctorate students: “... this is an inspiring privilege and an experience to be treasured...”

Dr. Randy Eaton, Pastor of North Metropolitan Church of Florida handled the course “Servant Leadership in a Multicultural World” while Dr. Emmanuel Luna, a professor of Community

Dr. Emmanuel Luna

Development and the present Secretary of the College of Social Work and Community Development at the University of the Philippines, taught “Church and Community Development.”

Dr. Randy Eaton

Last November, the masteral students of ASCM had the privilege of learning from Dr. Mark Swank, a passionate follower of Jesus Christ. He served COG as a missionary, educator, Campus Ministry mobilizer, urban ministry developer, Youth and Family Pastor, and as a Discipleship & Ministry Training coordinator for COG & YCE. He is presently serving as the Associate Pastor of Metropolitan Church in Birmingham, Alabama. His academic background includes a Doctor of Ministry degree at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, a Master of Divinity at COG Theological Seminary, and a BA in Business Administration from Eastern Michigan University.

At ASCM, he taught “Principles & Practices in Missions.”

Dr. Mark Swank

Dr. Mark Swank with his students in “Principles & Practices in Missions”